THE CARIBBEAN SEA JAZZ FESTIVAL ARUBA 2012

The 6th edition of the Caribbean Sea Jazz Festival Aruba will take place on October 5 & 6, 2012. The annual festival is organized to provide the visitors and people of Aruba a high quality music event. We give to you a terrific line-up of local and international bands and artists who are going to entertain you. And once again this year we can proudly present our confirmed artists. Well-known names, upcoming stars, but also local talent will take your attention on our various stages.

For the sixth time Cas di Cultura Plaza will be the heart of the festival with a big variety of music, theater and arts for one weekend. With a whole weekend full of artistic experiences the visitors will enjoy this festival that's all about music!

THE EVENT

The Caribbean Sea Jazz Festival, a dream of founder Erik Eman, was from the start a huge success for Aruba and its visitors. A good mix of Jazz, Latin, Soul, Funk, Salsa, Hiphop and Blues that was presented on various stages has proven itself to be more than a culturally successful arts festival. The festival attracted not only local visitors but from all over the world.

The concept is inspired by the North Sea Jazz Festival in the Netherlands and Saint Lucia Jazz. One of the Festival's main goals is to create a stage for local and regional talent but big names as well. It makes this festival a weekend out for the complete family, young and old.

In the week prior to the festival there will be several free warming-up concerts. From Monday October 1st Aruba will be bathed in music all over the island and will mark the path towards the apotheosis at Cas di Cultura. Different restaurants and bars are participating during this week. These are Hadicurari, Arawak Garden, Moomba, Salt & Pepper, Soprano's piano bar, The Plaza Café, Tango and Fishes and More. They will bring you in the mood and host several artists in anticipation of the 'Grand Finale' on October 5 & 6, 2012!
